Q01 | 169 WORDS

喜欢的公共建筑

Describe a building you enjoy visiting (e.g. a library or shopping mall)

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- Location of this building
- How you first learned about it
- Its appearance
- Why you enjoy visiting it

COMPLETE ANSWER

I'd like to talk about K11 in downtown Guangzhou. It is a tall public building with several floors of shops, offices above them and art exhibitions from time to time.

I like the inside most. There are artworks, colourful lights and small design displays, so it feels more creative than a normal shopping centre. I often go there with a friend to see a new exhibition or have coffee.

The displays change quite often, so there is usually something new to look at. It is also easy to reach by public transport. I also like that I can stay indoors when Guangzhou is very hot. When I have more time, I sometimes walk through the exhibition areas before getting coffee.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
Sometimes I take a quick photo of the displays because the colours give me ideas for my own design work.

For me, K11 is interesting because it mixes art with everyday activities. I can walk around, eat something and still get new design ideas, so I enjoy visiting it.

■■■■ / CHINESE REFERENCE

我想介绍广州中心城区的 K11。这是一栋高楼，下面有几层商店，上面是办公室，也会不定期举办艺术展。我最喜欢它的内部空间，有艺术品、彩色灯光和小型设计展，比普通商场更有创意。我常和朋友去看展或喝咖啡。展览经常更换，所以每次几乎都有新东西可看。坐公共交通去也方便，而且广州很热的时候可以待在室内。有空我会先逛展区再喝咖啡。我喜欢这里把艺术和日常生活结合起来，逛街吃东西的同时还能获得设计灵感。

Q02 | 154 WORDS

不喜欢的短途旅行

Describe a short trip you often take but do not like

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- Where you travel to
- When you usually make this trip
- Your reason for making it
- Why you dislike this regular trip

COMPLETE ANSWER

I'd like to talk about a short trip I often take but don't really enjoy.

On weekends, my friend and I often go to a large park with a lake near my home. She likes cycling and thinks it's a good way to relax, so she often asks me to go.

We usually rent bikes near the entrance and ride along the paths beside the lake. The trees and water are beautiful, but the park is huge and Guangzhou can be extremely hot, especially in the afternoon.

After a while, I feel tired and sweaty. I just want to find some shade and rest. Sometimes I think staying home with the air conditioner would be much easier.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
We sometimes bring cold drinks, but they do not make the long ride much easier.

I still go because I enjoy spending time with my friend. But if it were my choice, I'd prefer something more relaxing.

■■■■ / CHINESE REFERENCE

我想说一段我经常走、但并不太喜欢的短途行程。周末我和朋友经常去离家不远的一座大公园，里面有一个湖。她喜欢骑车，觉得这样既能运动又能放松，所以经常约我一起去。我们通常在入口附近租自行车，沿着湖边的小路骑行。树木和湖水都很漂亮，但公园很大，而且广州的天气非常热，尤其是下午。骑了一阵后，我就觉得又累又热，只想找个阴凉的地方休息。有时候我觉得在家吹空调可能更轻松。不过我还是会去，因为我喜欢和朋友一起度过时间。要是让我选，我会更喜欢轻松一点的活动。

Q03 | 165 WORDS

拥挤地方

Describe a crowded place that you have visited

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- Where it was
- When you visited
- The person who went with you
- What you did there
- How you felt about that visit

COMPLETE ANSWER

One crowded place I remember clearly is K11 in downtown Guangzhou.

I went to K11 with a friend on a weekend afternoon. It was very crowded near the escalators and the food area. We had to walk slowly, and it was hard to find a seat.

We moved from floor to floor, but many shops were chain stores we had already seen before. Some areas were also closed for renovation, so there was less to look at than we expected.

We stayed for nearly two hours, but we bought almost nothing. In the end, we just got coffee and left. I remember thinking that a short visit had taken much more time than I planned.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
At one point, I wondered whether we should just leave, because we still had not found anything worth staying for.

The crowd was the main problem for me. I still like the building itself, but now I prefer going on a weekday morning when I can walk around more easily.

■■■■ / CHINESE REFERENCE

我印象很深的拥挤地方是广州的 K11。有个周末下午，我和朋友一起去，扶梯和餐饮区附近挤满了人，走路很慢，也很难找到座位。我们一层层逛，却发现很多是早就见过的连锁店，还有些地方在装修，能看的东西比预期少。我们待了将近两个小时，几乎没买任何东西，最后只喝了咖啡就离开。我觉得短短一次逛街竟花了这么久。最困扰我的是人群太多；我仍然喜欢这栋建筑，但现在更愿意工作日早上去。

Q04 | 166 WORDS

学习并喜欢历史的人

Describe a person who learns and loves history

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- Who the person is
- How they study history
- What makes them interested in history
- Your opinion of this person

COMPLETE ANSWER

I'd like to talk about a friend who enjoys learning about history, especially the history of Chinese pottery.

My friend is a pottery craftsperson and she runs a small studio. She is interested in the history of Chinese pottery, so she often looks at old bowls, shapes and patterns in museums or online.

She does not just copy old designs. She takes ideas from them and makes colourful cups, small sculptures and character-shaped pieces. She still shapes the clay by hand and fires it in a kiln.

I have watched her work in the studio, and she can make small changes very quickly. I like the way she keeps the traditional technique but makes the final pieces look modern.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
Watching her work made me realise that even a small clay piece needs a lot of patience.

I think her way of learning history is interesting because she uses the old ideas in her own work. The history becomes something she can actually see and make.

■■■■ / CHINESE REFERENCE

我想说一位喜欢研究历史的朋友，尤其是中国陶艺史。她是一名陶艺工作者，经营着小工作室，常在博物馆或网上研究古老的碗、器型和图案。她不直接照搬旧设计，而是从中汲取灵感，制作彩色杯子、小雕塑和角色造型的作品，同时坚持手工塑形、用窑烧制。我看过她在工作室操作，能很快调整作品的细节。我喜欢她保留传统技术、又让成品看起来现代的方式。她把历史真正运用在作品里，让那些旧知识变成看得见、做得出的东西。

Q05 | 163 WORDS

小时候学到的新技能

Describe a new skill you learned when you were a child

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- The skill you learned
- Who taught you
- Your learning process
- How learning it made you feel

COMPLETE ANSWER

A skill I learned when I was young was making snow-skin mooncakes.

One Mid-Autumn Festival, my family got together at home. I was still quite young, and my mother taught me how to make snow-skin mooncakes.

We prepared the sweet filling, wrapped it in the soft mooncake skin and used a mould to press a pattern on top. My first one looked uneven because I pressed the mould too hard, so my mother showed me how to do it more gently.

Later, we compared the mooncakes, laughed at the strange-looking ones and ate them with tea after dinner. The homemade mooncakes were not perfect, but making them together was the part I remembered most.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION

I still remember how proud I felt when I finally made one that looked almost right.

I still remember the basic steps today. I think the skill stayed in my mind because I learned it with my family, not from a recipe or a class.

■■■■ / CHINESE REFERENCE

我小时候学会的一项技能是做冰皮月饼。有一年中秋节，家人在家里团聚，妈妈教年纪还小的我制作月饼。我们准备甜馅，把馅包进柔软的饼皮，再用模具压出花纹。我第一次用力过猛，月饼形状不太均匀，妈妈便教我轻一点。后来大家比较成品，笑那些奇形怪状的月饼，晚饭后配茶一起吃。自制月饼并不完美，但一起动手的过程最难忘。直到今天我还记得基本步骤，因为这是和家人一起学的，而不是从食谱或课堂上学来的。

Q06 | 161 WORDS

尊敬的比你年长的人

Describe someone older than you that you admire

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- Who they are
- How you came to know them
- Things you like doing together
- How you feel about them

COMPLETE ANSWER

An older person I respect is a friend of mine who makes pottery.

She is a few years older than me and has her own small pottery studio. One day, she invited me there and taught me how to make a small animal from clay.

She showed me how to keep my hands steady and how much pressure to use. I wanted to make a rabbit, but the shape slowly turned into something closer to a bear.

She did not take the clay away and fix it for me. She explained what I could change and let me try again. The final piece was not perfect, but I was proud that I finished it myself.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
She asked me to look at the shape from different angles before I tried to fix it.

I respect her because she is skilled and patient. When I make mistakes, she does not make me feel stupid; she helps me understand the problem and try again.

■■■■ / CHINESE REFERENCE

我尊敬的一位年长者是一位做陶艺的朋友。她比我大几岁，自己经营着小工作室。有一天她邀请我过去，教我用黏土做小动物。她示范怎样稳住双手、控制力度。我本想做兔子，结果慢慢做得更像熊。她没有拿走作品替我修好，而是解释哪里可以调整，让我自己再试。成品不完美，但能独立完成让我很自豪。我尊敬她的技术和耐心：即使我出错，她也不会让我觉得自己很笨，而是帮我理解问题、重新尝试。

Q07 | 168 WORDS

嘈杂地

Describe a noisy place you have been to

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- Where the place is
- When you visited it
- What you did there
- Why you consider it noisy

COMPLETE ANSWER

The noisiest place I can remember is a K-pop concert in Hong Kong.

I went to a K-pop concert in Hong Kong with two close friends. We had been fans of the same group for years, so we were excited long before the show started.

Before the concert, we had dinner near the venue and talked about the songs we hoped to hear. Once the lights went down, the crowd started cheering and singing along, and I could hardly hear my friends beside me.

At the end, the group performed a fan song. They also said, 'See you next year.' We were tired after the show, but we still bought drinks and kept talking on the way back to the hotel.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
I remember how excited we looked when the first familiar song began.

Normally that amount of noise would bother me, but at the concert it felt exciting because everyone was reacting to the same performance. My ears were tired afterwards, but I still enjoyed it.

■■■■ / CHINESE REFERENCE

我记得最吵的地方是香港的一场 K-pop 演唱会。我和两位好友一起去，我们喜欢这个组合很多年，所以演出前就很兴奋。开场前我们在场馆附近吃饭，还讨论希望听到哪些歌。灯光一暗，观众开始欢呼和合唱，我几乎听不到身旁朋友说话。最后组合唱了粉丝歌，还说"明年见"。散场后虽然很累，我们仍买了饮料，一路聊到酒店。平时这样的噪声会让我烦躁，但在演唱会上大家都为同一场表演激动，反而让我很享受，尽管耳朵也累坏了。

Q08 | 157 WORDS

想颁布的环保法律

Describe an environmental law you would like your country to introduce

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- What kind of law you would propose
- Why people should follow it
- Whether people would welcome the law
- Your feelings about this proposal

COMPLETE ANSWER

An environmental law I would like my country to introduce is a Plastic Bottle Recycling Reward Law.

I got the idea after reading about a bottle-return system in Germany. People can take empty plastic drink bottles to a recycling machine in a supermarket. In Germany, people can get back a deposit they paid when buying certain drinks.

In my version, people could get a few points or a small shopping discount for every bottle they return. They could still buy bottled drinks as usual, so the law would not take away their choices.

I think many people would support it because a small daily habit could bring a real benefit. If more bottles were collected, there would be less plastic waste and more material for recycling.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
People could save up the points and use them later when they buy groceries.

I would feel happy if this law helped more people protect the environment without punishing them.

■■■■ / CHINESE REFERENCE

我希望国家引入一项环保法律，叫做「塑料瓶回收奖励法」。这个想法来自我在网上读到的德国退瓶制度。人们可以把用过的塑料饮料瓶送到超市里的回收机器。在德国，购买部分瓶装饮料时，人们先支付押金，退回空瓶后可以取回押金。在我的方案中，每回收一个塑料瓶，人们可以获得一点积分或购物优惠。大家仍然可以照常购买瓶装饮料，所以不会失去原来的选择。我认为很多人会支持，因为一个小小的日常习惯就能带来实际好处。如果更多瓶子得到回收，塑料垃圾会减少，也有更多材料能循环利用。我会很高兴看到这项法律通过奖励而非惩罚，鼓励更多人保护环境。

Q09 | 191 WORDS

遇到的科技问题

Describe a challenging technological problem you faced

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- The technical problem
- When and where it happened
- What made it challenging
- How you managed to solve it

COMPLETE ANSWER

A technological problem I faced happened with my smartwatch.

I started using my smartwatch more seriously because I wanted to improve my exercise and sleep. I check my steps and activity rings after work, and if I have barely moved, I usually go out for a short walk.

I also use a sleep app at night, so I notice when I have been going to bed too late. The watch does not force me to exercise, but the numbers make my habits easier to see.

After I had used it for a while, the watch suddenly shut down even though it was only about a year old. I tried charging and restarting it, but both attempts failed.

I searched online and found someone with the same problem. A comment suggested updating the system, and after I tried that, the watch started working normally again.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
I spent quite a while trying to figure things out before I finally found a useful explanation online.

I felt relieved because I fixed it without going to a store. It also taught me that checking other users' experiences online can sometimes save a lot of time.

■■■■ / CHINESE REFERENCE

我遇到的一个科技问题出在智能手表上。我开始认真用手表记录运动和睡眠，下班后查看步数和活动圆环，发现自己走得太少就出去散步。晚上我也用睡眠应用，看看是不是睡得太晚。手表不会强迫我运动，但数据能帮助我看清习惯。用了一段时间后，手表突然关机，当时买来才一年左右。我试过充电和重启，都没用。后来上网发现有人遇到同样的问题，评论建议更新系统，我照做后手表恢复正常。我很庆幸不用跑维修店，也明白了网上别人的经验有时能节省很多时间。

Q10 | 155 WORDS

当地新闻

Describe a piece of local news that people are interested in

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- What the news was about
- Where you came across it
- Who was involved
- Why local people cared about it

COMPLETE ANSWER

A piece of local news I remember was a short video about a pottery market in my city.

I found it on social media and almost skipped it because I used to think pottery was old-fashioned. The clip was only about two or three minutes long, so it was easy to finish.

The video showed hands shaping clay and then showed the finished pieces. There were colourful cups, small sculptures and cute character-shaped objects, not just plain bowls.

A few young makers said they wanted younger people to notice traditional crafts. I liked that idea because the old technique could still produce something modern and fun.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
The colours caught my attention first, and then I became curious about how the pieces were made.

After watching the video, I wanted to see the work in person and later visited a pottery studio. It completely changed the picture of pottery I had in my head.

■■■■ / CHINESE REFERENCE

我记得一则本地新闻，是社交媒体上的陶艺市集短视频。我原本觉得陶艺很老派，差点划过去，不过视频只有两三分钟，就看完了。视频先展示双手塑形，再展示完成的作品：彩色杯子、小雕塑、可爱的角色造型，而不只是普通的碗。几位年轻创作者说，他们希望更多年轻人注意传统手艺。我很喜欢这个想法，因为旧技术也能做出有趣、现代的作品。看完我想亲眼看看这些作品，后来还去了陶艺工作室，这完全改变了我对陶艺的印象。

Q11 | 158 WORDS

长期追求/目标

Describe a long-term goal or ambition you would like to achieve

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- How long you have wanted this
- What your ambition is
- Your plan for achieving it
- Why you chose that goal

COMPLETE ANSWER

A long-term goal I would like to achieve is to build a small online art platform similar to my friend Claire's.

Claire turned her interest in drawing into a small online art business. The platform works with artists and lets customers preview how a painting may look in their room before they buy it.

She started with only a few artists and posted regularly on social media. Over time, more people followed the platform, and it later joined some exhibitions overseas.

I like the AR preview because it solves a simple problem. People can see the artwork in a room before spending money, so choosing a painting feels easier.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
I would ask a few artists what they need most, so the first version could solve a real problem.

To do that, I would need to learn more about management, branding and working with artists. I would start small and test the idea before trying to grow it.

■■■■ / CHINESE REFERENCE

我的长期目标是建立一个像朋友 Claire 那样的小型线上艺术平台。Claire 把画画兴趣发展成艺术生意，与艺术家合作，让顾客在购买前预览画挂在房间里的效果。她最初只合作少数艺术家，定期在社交媒体更新，慢慢积累了关注者，后来还参加海外展览。我很喜欢 AR 预览功能，因为它解决了一个实际问题：人们花钱之前就能看到艺术品放在家里的样子，更容易挑选。我需要进一步学习管理、品牌和如何与艺术家合作，先做小规模尝试，验证想法，再考虑扩大。

想从事医疗行业的人

Describe someone who wants to work in the medical field

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- When you met the person
- When their career interest began
- The medical job they want
- Why they wish to do that work

COMPLETE ANSWER

The person I know who would like to work in the medical field is my friend Claire.

She became interested in being a doctor after watching a Korean medical drama. The doctors had to stay calm, make quick decisions and help people in difficult situations. That made her respect the job a lot.

Later, she did some volunteer work in her community. She helped with simple health activities, looked after people who needed help and organised small tasks with the other volunteers.

She thinks that experience taught her how to care for people and how to handle practical work. She believes those skills will help her become a more professional doctor in the future.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
She knows becoming a doctor will take years of study, but she seems ready to put in the effort.

She has started checking courses and qualifications, so it is not just a casual idea. I think the job suits her because she is patient, organised and willing to keep learning.

■■■■ / CHINESE REFERENCE

我认识的想进入医疗行业的人是朋友 Claire。她看了一部韩国医疗剧后，对当医生产生兴趣。剧中的医生需要保持冷静、快速决策，并在困难的情况下帮助病人，让她很尊敬这份职业。后来她参加了社区志愿活动，协助简单的健康项目、照顾有需要的人，还和其他志愿者一起安排任务。她觉得这些经验教会自己照顾别人和处理实际工作，对将来成为专业医生有帮助。她也开始查找课程和资格要求，不只是随口说说。我认为她有耐心、有条理，也愿意不断学习，很适合这个职业。

无聊的地方

Describe a boring place

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- Where it is
- Who visited it with you
- What you did there
- Why it was boring to you

COMPLETE ANSWER

One place I found boring was K11 in Guangzhou.

I went to K11 with a friend on a weekend afternoon. It was very crowded near the escalators and the food area. We had to walk slowly, and it was hard to find a seat.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
At one point, I wondered whether we should just leave, because we still had not found anything worth staying for.

For me, the visit became boring because the shops felt similar and there was not much new to see. I would rather spend that time in smaller local shops.

Q14 | 175 WORDS

近期改变

Describe a change you made recently

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- What you changed
- What prompted the change
- The steps you took
- Your feelings about the change

COMPLETE ANSWER

A recent change in my life is that I have become more regular with exercise and sleep. I bought a smartwatch not long ago because I wanted to build healthier habits.

I now check my steps and activity rings after work. If I have barely moved all day, I usually go out for a short walk instead of just sitting at home.

I also use a sleep app at night, so I notice when I have been going to bed too late. The watch does not force me to exercise, but the numbers make my habits easier to see.

Before, I often lost track of time and forgot to move when I was busy. Now I try to take short walks and go to bed at a more regular time.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
On busy days, even a short walk feels easier to manage than a big workout.

It is only a small change, but it helps me take better care of myself. I do not need to do everything perfectly; I just try to be more consistent.

■■■■ / CHINESE REFERENCE

喜欢的城市自然之地

Describe a natural place in your city that you enjoy visiting

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- Where this place in your city is
- What it looks and feels like
- How frequently you visit
- Who you normally go with
- Why you enjoy the place

COMPLETE ANSWER

A natural place in my city that I like visiting is Dafu Mountain Forest Park in Guangzhou. It has a lake, green hills and lots of tall trees.

I went there with a friend on a weekend. We rented bikes near the entrance and rode along the paths beside the lake. It was a nice way to explore the park without rushing.

The views were beautiful. We could see green hills across the water and hear birds singing in the trees. Some parts of the path were shady, so it felt cooler than the busy streets outside.

We could ride at our own pace and stop to look at the lake whenever we wanted. Even after cycling for quite a while, I still felt relaxed rather than tired.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
We also stopped for a moment to watch a few birds near the water.

I don't go there every week, but I like visiting when I have free time. It is a simple way to enjoy nature and get some exercise without leaving Guangzhou.

浪费时间的活动

Describe an activity you do regularly that you think is a waste of time

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- What the activity is
- When you normally do it
- Why you continue doing it
- Why you consider it a poor use of time

COMPLETE ANSWER

An activity I often do that wastes my time is scrolling through social media.

I usually do it after work, when I get home and want to relax. I check updates from my favourite K-pop group and watch short videos about art and design.

Sometimes I find something interesting. For example, I once saw a short video about a local pottery market. It showed colourful cups, small sculptures and cute character-shaped pieces. That video changed my old impression that pottery was boring.

But most of the time, I just keep scrolling. I see similar videos again and again, and sometimes almost two hours pass before I notice.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
I often tell myself I'll stop after one more video, but then another one appears.

I know I could use that time to exercise, practise English or do something creative. Scrolling is very easy and takes almost no effort, so I think it is a waste of time.

喜欢拍照的人

Describe someone you know who really likes taking photos

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- Who they are
- When and how you met
- Places where they take photos
- Your feelings about the person

COMPLETE ANSWER

The person I would like to describe is a close friend who loves taking photos.

I noticed this most clearly when we travelled to a quiet Japanese island. We rented bikes and explored the island together.

My friend kept stopping to take pictures of the sea, signs and little streets. She likes natural light and sometimes takes several versions before choosing one. What impressed me was how she could make ordinary places look interesting, even when nothing special was happening.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
She took time to choose the right angle, and I could see how much she cared about each photo.

At first, I did not notice all the small things she was photographing. But I slowly started to appreciate the details too. Later, she sent me a small album from the trip, and I enjoyed seeing places through her eyes.

攒钱买特别物品

Describe a time when you saved money to buy something special

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- The item you bought
- Why you wanted it
- The way you saved for it
- Your feelings after the purchase

COMPLETE ANSWER

Something special I saved money to buy was my smartwatch.

I wanted a smartwatch because I wanted to track my exercise and sleep. I did not need to buy it immediately. So I saved a fixed amount from my salary for a few months and cut down on unnecessary online shopping.

When I had enough money, I went to an Apple Store and tried a few models. A staff member asked what I needed the watch for and showed me the exercise, heart-rate and sleep functions.

She also showed me cheaper options and did not push the most expensive model. After I chose one, she helped me set up the basic functions.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
The staff member took time to explain the differences between the watches, which made choosing one much easier.

I felt good about the purchase because I had planned it for a few months and could pay for it without affecting my normal expenses. I still use the watch every day.

保护环境的法律

Describe a law on environmental protection

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- What the environmental law is
- How you first heard about it
- Who receives benefits from it
- How you feel about the law

COMPLETE ANSWER

A law about environmental protection that I know is Germany's bottle deposit system. I first heard about it online when I was learning about recycling.

People can take empty plastic drink bottles to a recycling machine in a supermarket. For many drinks, people pay a small deposit when buying the bottle. After they return the empty bottle, they get that money back.

I think this helps people who often buy bottled drinks, because they can get back their own money simply by keeping the bottles. It also gives them a reason not to throw the bottles away.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
The machines make it easy to return bottles, even for people using them for the first time.

More bottles can be collected and recycled, so there is less plastic waste. I like this law because recycling becomes a normal part of daily life, and people do not have to make a big change to do something useful.

我知道一项保护环境的法律，是德国的饮料瓶押金制度。我是在网上了解回收做法时第一次听说的。人们可以把用过的塑料饮料瓶送到超市里的回收机器。购买不少瓶装饮料时，要先支付一小笔押金；退回空瓶后，就能取回自己的押金。我认为这对经常购买瓶装饮料的人很有帮助，因为只要留下空瓶，就能把先前付的钱拿回来。这也让人们不再随手丢弃瓶子。更多瓶子可以被收集和回收，因此塑料垃圾会减少。我喜欢这项法律，因为它让回收成为日常生活中自然的一部分，不需要做出很大的改变。

包含动物的故事或书

Describe a story or book with animals in it

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- The animals in the story
- What happens in the story or book
- Why you read it
- What you think of the story

COMPLETE ANSWER

An animal story I really like is Zootopia. It takes place in a city where many kinds of animals live together. The main character is a small rabbit who dreams of becoming a police officer.

Other animals do not take her seriously because of her size. At work, she meets a fox who is also judged by a stereotype, because many animals assume foxes are dishonest.

The two characters end up working together on a difficult case. At first they do not fully trust each other, but they slowly learn to cooperate. One character cannot solve everything alone. They need each other's different strengths.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
I liked imagining the different parts of the city, where animals of all sizes could live together.

What I like most is the animal world because it feels fresh and imaginative. The film also plays with common stereotypes, because the rabbit and the fox are both different from what others expect. So it reminds me not to judge someone too quickly.

Describe a time when you sent a message or email but waited a long time for a reply

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- The recipient of your message
- What you wrote about
- Whether a reply eventually arrived
- Your feelings about the wait

COMPLETE ANSWER

A time I did not receive a reply for a long time happened while I was organising a concert trip with friends.

For one concert trip, two friends and I made a group chat and divided the work. I looked for tickets, while one friend handled the hotel and transport.

We kept the booking details and meeting times in the same chat, so everyone knew what had already been arranged.

While I was buying the tickets on a second-hand platform, one seller replied quickly at first and then suddenly stopped answering when we started talking about how to send the ticket.

Later, our hotel booking was cancelled as well. Luckily, the friend responsible for the hotel already had a backup option, so we changed places without too much trouble.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
Every time my phone lit up, I hoped it was the seller, but it was usually another message.

I waited for more than an hour and kept checking my phone because tickets were selling quickly. In the end, I contacted another seller and got the ticket from that person instead.

Describe an advertisement featuring a famous person

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- Who the celebrity is
- Where you have seen the ad
- What it promotes
- How you feel about the advertisement

COMPLETE ANSWER

I'd like to talk about a Mid-Autumn advertisement featuring a Chinese member of my favourite K-pop group. I saw it online, and it was for a limited-edition collaboration with a local coffee brand.

The product was a special mooncake set. She helped come up with the idea, and the box had her name and a small personal logo on it. That made the campaign feel more connected to her, instead of being a normal celebrity endorsement.

In the video, she also showed viewers how to make a simple snow-skin mooncake. I followed the steps at home, mixed the filling, wrapped it in the skin and pressed a pattern on top with a mould.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION

I watched the cooking part twice because I wanted to get the steps right when I tried it myself.

I normally skip celebrity ads, but I watched this one to the end because it felt personal and practical. I even bought the collaboration coffee afterwards, so the advertisement clearly worked on me.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
We kept checking the group chat, so nobody had to ask for the same information twice.

The trip showed me why teamwork is useful. Each person was responsible for one part, so when the ticket seller or the hotel caused a problem, we did not all have to solve everything at the same time.

想颁布的新法律

Describe a new law you would like your country to introduce

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- What law you suggest
- What changes it would bring
- Whether people would support it
- How you thought of the idea
- Your opinion of the proposed law

COMPLETE ANSWER

A new law I would like my country to introduce is a Plastic Bottle Recycling Reward Law.

I got the idea after reading about a bottle-return system in Germany. People can take empty plastic drink bottles to a recycling machine in a supermarket. In Germany, people can get back a deposit they paid when buying certain drinks.

In my version, people could get a few points or a small shopping discount for every bottle they return. They could still buy bottled drinks as usual, so the law would not take away their choices.

I think many people would support it because a small daily habit could bring a real benefit. If more bottles were collected, there would be less plastic waste and more material for recycling.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
People could save up the points and use them later when they buy groceries.

The important thing is that nobody would lose the freedom to buy bottled drinks. The law would simply reward people for a greener habit. I think that is better than adding new restrictions.

早起经历

Describe a time when you got up early

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- When this happened
- What you did that morning
- Your reason for waking early
- How you felt about the experience

COMPLETE ANSWER

The clearest time I remember getting up early was for a concert trip to Hong Kong.

I had originally planned to spend the weekend working overtime. Then my best friend and I heard that our favourite K-pop group might not stay together much longer, so we started thinking about going to their concert.

I finished the most urgent work first, told my team in advance and asked for a day off. We made the decision quite late, so the train was already sold out and we had to book an early flight.

The flight meant getting up at about three in the morning. I had packed the night before, but I was still very sleepy when I left home and went to the airport.

The trip was more tiring and a little more expensive than our original plan, but we reached the concert on time. I was glad we went because the work could still be finished later, but that concert could not be repeated.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION

When we finally got on the early flight, I felt tired but excited about what was ahead.

Getting up at three was painful, but once the concert started I stopped thinking about how tired I was. In the end, the early start felt worth it.

Describe a popular person

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- Who this person is
- What the person is like
- When you usually see them
- Why you believe they are popular

COMPLETE ANSWER

A popular person I know is my friend Claire.

Claire and I first met at school more than ten years ago. When we were younger, we often talked after class about music and drawing, and she used to draw in the margins of her notebooks.

She is very good at planning trips. Before we travel, she checks transport and hotels and makes a simple plan. But she is easy-going and happy to change the plan when someone has a better idea.

Outside work, she still draws, grows tomatoes on her balcony and sometimes meets friends for coffee. She has her own interests, but she also makes time for other people.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
Even when we only have time for coffee, she always makes the conversation feel relaxed.

I think she is popular because she makes trips easy and fun, and she listens to other people's suggestions. Everyone feels comfortable making plans with her, so friends often invite her to join them.

Describe an enjoyable evening you had with friends

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- What you did together
- Which friends were there

COMPLETE ANSWER

An enjoyable evening I spent with friends was the night of a K-pop concert in Hong Kong.

I went to a K-pop concert in Hong Kong with two close friends. We had been fans of the same group for years, so we were excited long before the show started.

Before the concert, we had dinner near the venue and talked about the songs we hoped to hear. Once the lights went down, the crowd started cheering and singing along, and I could hardly hear my friends beside me.

At the end, the group performed a fan song. They also said, 'See you next year.' We were tired after the show, but we still bought drinks and kept talking on the way back to the hotel.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION

最不喜欢的电影

Describe your least favourite movie

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- When you watched it
- Where you saw it
- What the story was about
- Why it is your least favourite film

COMPLETE ANSWER

A movie I did not enjoy very much was Zootopia 2. I had liked the first film a lot, so I went into the second one with quite high expectations.

The story still follows Judy and Nick on a new case, and there are several new characters. I liked seeing them work together again, but some parts spent a long time explaining the city's history.

The first movie felt fresh because I was discovering the animal city for the first time. In the second one, I had to remember more names and background details. Sometimes I lost track of what Judy and Nick were actually trying to solve.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION

I kept comparing it with the first film, which probably made the sequel harder for me to enjoy.

I would not call it a terrible movie, but I came out a little disappointed. The first film was easier to follow and gave me more surprises, while the second one felt more complicated without being more fun.

听不感兴趣的话

Describe a time when someone talked about something uninteresting but you kept listening

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- Who was talking
- The topic they discussed
- Why you continued listening
- How you felt about the experience

COMPLETE ANSWER

I'd like to talk about a time when I listened to a friend who runs a pottery studio. She was explaining different kinds of clay, firing temperatures and traditional patterns, which I was not interested in.

At that time, I still thought pottery was rather old-fashioned, and many of the technical words meant very little to me. I found it difficult to follow the details, but she was clearly excited, so I did not want to interrupt or look rude.

Near the end, she showed me a few colourful modern pieces on her phone. That helped me understand the topic a little better, but pottery still was not something I would normally choose to talk about.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
I kept nodding and asking simple questions, even though I did not understand most of the technical words.

I remember the conversation mainly because it was a good test of patience. I tried to stay polite and listen properly even when the topic itself was not something I would normally choose.

The most organised person I know is my friend Claire.

Claire is one of my closest friends, and we have known each other for more than ten years. She usually starts things with a clear goal.

She makes a short to-do list on her laptop and decides what she needs to do each day. She uses the same method for languages. For English, she watched Friends and talked with people online. For Japanese, she uses an app regularly.

She is also not afraid of making mistakes. If she learns a useful phrase, she tries to use it in a real conversation. She does not just write it down.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- Who the person is
- The difficult thing they did

I'd like to talk about my younger sister and her first trip alone. She had just finished high school, was quite shy and had never travelled by herself before.

She really wanted to attend a K-pop fan meeting, but the airport, hotel and venue all made her nervous. I helped her choose a safe hotel, check the visa process and go through the route before she left.

She still wanted to give up at one point, but having a clear plan made the trip feel possible. During the trip, she used maps on her phone and sent us a message after she reached the hotel.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
We saved the hotel address and the route on her phone, so she could check them by herself.

喜欢拜访但不想住的家

Describe a home you like visiting but would not want to live in

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- Location of the home
- What it is like inside
- Why you enjoy visiting
- Why you would not want to live there

COMPLETE ANSWER

A home I like visiting but would not want to live in is Claire's apartment.

Claire lives in a small apartment, and my favourite part is her balcony. She grows tomatoes there in a few pots because she wanted something simple to care for at home.

She bought the soil and seeds herself. She waters the plants, checks the leaves and moves the pots when they need more sunlight. When the first tomatoes appeared, she sent me photos because she was really excited.

When I visit, we often sit near the balcony, have a drink and talk. The apartment feels personal because there are plants, drawings and art supplies around the room.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
Her plants and art supplies make the place feel warm, but they also take up quite a lot of room.

I enjoy visiting because it feels cosy, but I would not want to live there. The space is small and there is not much storage, so it can feel crowded very quickly.

看过的现场比赛

Describe a live sports event you watched and liked

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- What sports event it was
- When and where you watched
- Who watched with you
- Why you liked this event

COMPLETE ANSWER

A live sports event I remember well is a women's ice hockey match I watched in Vancouver with my best friend. We were travelling there when we saw a poster for the game and decided to buy tickets.

It was my first time watching women's ice hockey in person. Many people wore team jerseys, and the crowd was already excited before the match started. The arena felt very different from watching sport on TV.

At first, I found the puck difficult to follow because it moved so quickly and looked tiny from our seats. After a while, I got used to the speed and started understanding when something important was happening. Even when the US pulled further ahead, I noticed one Canadian player who stayed active and kept directing her teammates.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
The cheers around us made even small moments feel important, although I was still learning the rules.

The team I supported lost near the end, so the trip back was quieter. Even so, I enjoyed the match because the live atmosphere made a sport I barely knew feel exciting.

- What your new plan was
- How you felt about the change

COMPLETE ANSWER

A plan I changed recently was my plan for one weekend.

I had originally planned to spend the weekend working overtime. Then my best friend and I heard that our favourite K-pop group might not stay together much longer, so we started thinking about going to their concert.

I finished the most urgent work first, told my team in advance and asked for a day off. We made the decision quite late, so the train was already sold out and we had to book an early flight.

The flight meant getting up at about three in the morning. I had packed the night before, but I was still very sleepy when I left home and went to the airport.

The trip was more tiring and a little more expensive than our original plan, but we reached the concert on time. I was glad we went because the work could still be finished later, but that concert could not be repeated.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION

When we finally got on the early flight, I felt tired but excited about what was ahead.

The main change was simple: I went from working overtime to taking a day off and travelling to the concert. It was less convenient, but I was happy with the new plan.

我最近改变的一项计划，是一个周末本来准备加班，却改成去看演唱会。听说最喜欢的 K-pop 组合可能不久后就不再一起活动，我和好友开始考虑去现场。我先完成最紧急的工作、通知团队、请了一天假。决定太晚，高铁票已售罄，只好订早班机。这意味着凌晨三点起床，即使前一晚收拾好行李，去机场时还是很困。旅程又累又贵一些，但我们准时看到演出。工作之后还能做，这场演唱会却无法重来。虽然新安排更麻烦，我仍然很庆幸改变计划。

喜欢在家/花园种菜的人

Describe a person who loves growing plants at home or in a garden

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- Who the person is
- The plants they grow
- How they look after them
- Why they enjoy growing plants

COMPLETE ANSWER

The person I know who enjoys growing vegetables at home is my friend Claire.

Claire lives in a small apartment, and my favourite part is her balcony. She grows tomatoes there in a few pots because she wanted something simple to care for at home.

She bought the soil and seeds herself. She waters the plants, checks the leaves and moves the pots when they need more sunlight. When the first tomatoes appeared, she sent me photos because she was really excited.

When I visit, we often sit near the balcony, have a drink and talk. The apartment feels personal because there are plants, drawings and art supplies around the room.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
She gets excited whenever she notices a new leaf, even if it is a very small change.

She likes this hobby because she can see the plants change week by week. When she finally gets a few tomatoes, she feels that all the watering and waiting were worth it.

有趣视频

Describe an interesting video

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- Where and when you watched it
- The video's subject
- Why you chose to watch it
- Your opinion of the video

COMPLETE ANSWER

An interesting video I watched was a short local-news clip about a pottery market.

I found it on social media and almost skipped it because I used to think pottery was old-fashioned. The clip was only about two or three minutes long, so it was easy to finish.

The video showed hands shaping clay and then showed the finished pieces. There were colourful cups, small sculptures and cute character-shaped objects, not just plain bowls.

A few young makers said they wanted younger people to notice traditional crafts. I liked that idea because the old technique could still produce something modern and fun.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
The colours caught my attention first, and then I became curious about how the pieces were made.

After watching the video, I wanted to see the work in person and later visited a pottery studio. It completely changed the picture of pottery I had in my head.

看过的名人采访

Describe a time you watched a famous person being interviewed

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- The famous interviewee
- The topic discussed
- When and where you watched
- How the interview made you feel

COMPLETE ANSWER

I'd like to talk about an interview with Soyeon, the leader of my favourite K-pop group, (G)I-DLE. I watched it on YouTube around the group's comeback in 2022.

Before that comeback, one member had left and the group had been away for quite a long time. Soyeon talked about how the remaining five members had to adjust and prepare the new album.

What I remember most is that she said they worked on the album as if they were debuting again. She wanted the group to move forward and make a fresh start, even though it was not easy.

I was impressed by how seriously she took her role as a leader. She talked about the difficulties directly instead of pretending everything had been fine.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
I remembered how uncertain the group's future had seemed, so her words felt especially meaningful to me.

The interview made me respect her more. I already liked the group's music, but her words helped me understand how much work and pressure there was behind the comeback.

擅长做手工的人

Describe someone who is good at making things by hand

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- Who the craftsperson is
- The things they make
- Their materials or techniques
- Why you think their craft skills are good

COMPLETE ANSWER

A person I know who is very good at making things by hand is a friend of mine who makes pottery.

My friend is a pottery craftsperson and she runs a small studio. She is interested in the history of Chinese pottery, so she often looks at old bowls, shapes and patterns in museums or online.

She does not just copy old designs. She takes ideas from them and makes colourful cups, small sculptures and character-shaped pieces. She still shapes the clay by hand and fires it in a kiln.

I have watched her work in the studio, and she can make small changes very quickly. I like the way she keeps the traditional technique but makes the final pieces look modern.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
Watching her work made me realise that even a small clay piece needs a lot of patience.

I admire her skill because the process is difficult when I try it. She can turn a soft piece of clay into something neat and detailed very quickly.

COMPLETE ANSWER

A person I would describe as happy is my friend Claire.

Claire and I first met at school more than ten years ago. When we were younger, we often talked after class about music and drawing, and she used to draw in the margins of her notebooks.

She is very good at planning trips. Before we travel, she checks transport and hotels and makes a simple plan. But she is easy-going and happy to change the plan when someone has a better idea.

Outside work, she still draws, grows tomatoes on her balcony and sometimes meets friends for coffee. She has her own interests, but she also makes time for other people.

She still wanted to give up at one point, but having a clear plan made the trip feel possible. During the trip, she used maps on her phone and sent us a message after she reached the hotel.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
We saved the hotel address and the route on her phone, so she could check them by herself.

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- When you changed your view
- What you originally believed
- What caused your change of mind
- How the experience made you feel

COMPLETE ANSWER

I'd like to talk about a trip that changed my opinion about cycling. Before that day, I thought cycling on a trip would only make me tired and slow me down.

My friend and I went to a quiet Japanese island. We missed the bus, and public transport was very limited, so we rented bikes. The weather was extremely hot, and I was not happy about cycling at first.

We rode along a quiet coastal road. My friend loves taking photos, so we stopped several times to photograph the sea and the little streets.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
We found some little streets that I probably would not have noticed from the bus.

I was still tired at the end, but I understood why people enjoy cycling on trips. We could explore at our own pace, and the journey felt more flexible than I expected. Her photos also helped me appreciate the small details of the journey.

推荐旅行过的地方

Describe a place you travelled to that you would recommend to other people

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- What place you recommend
- Where it is
- What you saw and did there
- Why others should visit

COMPLETE ANSWER

A place I have visited and would recommend is a mountain in Nara, Japan.

I went to a mountain in Nara, Japan, after shopping for most of the day. I was already tired and still carrying a few bags when we started going up.

We took a taxi most of the way, but the best place to watch the sunset was higher, so we still had to walk uphill for a while.

The wide green grass slopes were beautiful and the area was very quiet. We saw a few deer along the way, and there were even more near the higher viewing area.

We fed a few of the deer, took photos together and watched the sunset. I was exhausted, but the view made the climb feel worth it.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
I stopped for a moment to watch the deer moving around on the grass before the sunset.

I would recommend going in the late afternoon, so you can reach the higher area before sunset. The walk is a little tiring, but you can see grass slopes, deer and a beautiful view in one trip.

特殊场合下吃的食物

Describe a food eaten on special occasions or events

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- What the food is
- The occasion when it is eaten
- How it is prepared
- Why people eat it on that occasion

COMPLETE ANSWER

A special food I remember eating was a snow-skin mooncake during the Mid-Autumn Festival.

One Mid-Autumn Festival, my family got together at home. I was still quite young, and my mother taught me how to make snow-skin mooncakes.

We prepared the sweet filling, wrapped it in the soft mooncake skin and used a mould to press a pattern on top. My first one looked uneven because I pressed the mould too hard, so my mother showed me how to do it more gently.

Later, we compared the mooncakes, laughed at the strange-looking ones and ate them with tea after dinner. The homemade mooncakes were not perfect, but making them together was the part I remembered most.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION

I still remember how proud I felt when I finally made one that looked almost right.

Describe someone you know who runs a successful business

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- Who the business owner is
- How you met them
- Why and how they started the business
- What the business does
- Why it is successful

COMPLETE ANSWER

A person I know who is successful in business is my friend Claire.

Claire turned her interest in drawing into a small online art business. The platform works with artists and lets customers preview how a painting may look in their room before they buy it.

She started with only a few artists and posted regularly on social media. Over time, more people followed the platform, and it later joined some exhibitions overseas.

I like the AR preview because it solves a simple problem. People can see the artwork in a room before spending money, so choosing a painting feels easier.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
The AR preview made her platform different from ordinary art shops, and I think it helped attract customers.

I think she is successful because people do not just follow the account; they actually use the service and buy art through it. The business has a clear idea and a real use for customers.

YOU SHOULD SAY:

COMPLETE ANSWER

I'd like to talk about K11 in downtown Guangzhou. It is a tall public building with several floors of shops, offices above them and art exhibitions from time to time.

I like the inside most. There are artworks, colourful lights and small design displays, so it feels more creative than a normal shopping centre. I often go there with a friend to see a new exhibition or have coffee.

The displays change quite often, so there is usually something new to look at. It is also easy to reach by public transport. I also like that I can stay indoors when Guangzhou is very hot. When I have more time, I sometimes walk through the exhibition areas before getting coffee.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
Sometimes I take a quick photo of the displays because the colours give me ideas for my own design work.

Describe a book that made you happy

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- What the book is and its story
- Why you decided to read it
- What you found interesting or exciting
- Why the book made you happy

COMPLETE ANSWER

One book that made me happy is Zootopia. It takes place in a city where many kinds of animals live together. The main character is a small rabbit who dreams of becoming a police officer.

Other animals do not take her seriously because of her size. At work, she meets a fox who is also judged by a stereotype, because many animals assume foxes are dishonest.

The two characters end up working together on a difficult case. At first they do not fully trust each other, but they slowly learn to cooperate. One character cannot solve everything alone. They need each other's different strengths.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION

I liked imagining the different parts of the city, where animals of all sizes could live together.

What I like most is the animal world because it feels fresh and imaginative. The book also plays with common stereotypes, because the rabbit and the fox are both different from what others expect. I find their friendship funny and heartwarming, and I felt really happy when I finished the book.

An athlete I admire is Marie-Philip Poulin, a Canadian women's ice hockey player. I first noticed her at a match in Vancouver with my best friend.

It was Canada against the United States, and it was my first time watching women's ice hockey live. The puck moved so fast that I could hardly follow the game.

But one Canadian player caught my eye. She was very active and kept giving directions to her teammates. Even as the US scored more goals, she stayed focused and tried to organise attacks.

After the game, my friend told me that the player was Poulin, the team captain. I later learned that she had led Canada's national team for years. I also found out that the new women's professional league only started in 2024.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION

- And explain why you think he/she is a creative person

COMPLETE ANSWER

One of my most creative friends runs a small pottery studio. She is a few years older than me. I first met her when I joined a pottery workshop at her studio.

She is interested in the history of Chinese pottery, so she often looks at old bowls, shapes and patterns in museums or online. But she does not just copy old designs.

Instead, she takes ideas from them and makes colourful cups, small sculptures and cute character-shaped pieces. She still shapes the clay by hand and fires it in a kiln.

I have watched her work in the studio, and she can make small changes very quickly. Before I met her, I thought pottery was old-fashioned, but her work completely changed my impression.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
Watching her work made me realise that even a small clay piece needs a lot of patience.

I think she is creative because she can turn traditional ideas into something modern and fun. As someone who works in design, I really admire the way she combines old techniques with new ideas.

不会用的科技产品

Describe a piece of technology you own that is difficult to use

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- When you got the device
- Why you bought or got it
- How often you use it
- How you feel about using it

COMPLETE ANSWER

A piece of technology I found difficult to use at first was my smartwatch. I bought it because I wanted to track my exercise and sleep.

When I bought it at an Apple Store, a staff member showed me the basic functions and helped me set it up. But when I started using it on my own, I found some parts confusing.

There were so many icons and settings that I did not know where to look. For example, I could see my activity rings, but I did not understand all the numbers. I also had trouble finding my sleep reports.

I searched online for simple instructions and tried the different features one by one. After a while, I learned how to check my steps, daily activity and sleep.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
I spent quite a while trying to figure things out before I finally found a useful explanation online.

Now I use the watch almost every day, so I think it is useful. But I still remember how difficult it felt at the beginning. Even a helpful product can take time to learn.

我起初觉得很难使用的一件科技产品是智能手表。我买它是为了记录运动和睡眠。购买时 Apple Store 的店员示范了基础功能，还帮我设置好。但自己开始使用后，我发现有些地方很难理解。图标和设置太多，不知道该从哪里找功能。例如我能看到活动圆环，却不明白所有数字的含义，也很难找到睡眠报告。后来我上网搜索简单说明，自己逐项尝试。过了一段时间，我学会了查看步数、每日活动和睡眠数据。现在我几乎每天使用它，觉得很实用，但仍记得刚开始有多困难。即使很有帮助的产品，也可能需要时间才能学会使用。
