喜欢的公共建筑

Describe a public building you like

- what the building is and where it is
- what it looks like
- what you do there
- and explain why you like it

中文记忆链

广州 K11 > 高层公共建筑 > 商店、办公室、艺术展 > 和朋友看展喝咖啡 > 交通方便 > 像商场和画廊的结合 > 我喜欢

完整答案

I'd like to talk about K11 in downtown Guangzhou. It is a tall public building with several floors of shops, offices above them and art exhibitions from time to time.

I like the inside most. There are artworks, colourful lights and small design displays, so it feels more creative than a normal shopping centre. I often go there with a friend to see a new exhibition or have coffee.

The displays change quite often, so there is usually something new to look at. It is also easy to reach by public transport. I also like that I can stay indoors when Guangzhou is very hot. When I have more time, I sometimes walk through the exhibition areas before getting coffee.

For me, K11 is interesting because it mixes art with everyday activities. I can walk around, eat something and still get new design ideas, so I enjoy visiting it.

推荐记忆锚点

K11 / downtown Guangzhou / tall public building / art exhibitions / artworks / colourful lights / design displays / friend / coffee / public transport / art / design ideas

Q02

不喜欢的短途旅行

Describe a short trip you did not enjoy

- where you went
- who you went with
- what happened on the trip
- and explain why you did not enjoy it

中文记忆链

日本小岛短途 > 错过公交、改租自行车 > 天气非常热 > 沿海骑行、朋友一路拍照 > 风景漂亮但越骑越累 > 最后晒伤、整体不享受

完整答案

I'd like to talk about a short island trip that I did not really enjoy.

My friend and I went to a quiet Japanese island. We missed the bus, and public transport was very limited, so we rented bikes. The weather was extremely hot, and I was not happy about cycling at first.

We followed a quiet road beside the coast and could stop whenever we wanted. My friend loves taking photos, so we stopped several times for the sea, the small roads and other details. We had expected to use the bus, so the long bike ride felt like a last-minute backup plan.

The views were beautiful, but the heat made the ride harder and harder. By the end, I was tired, sweaty and sunburnt, so I would not choose to do the same trip again in that weather.

推荐记忆锚点

short island trip / Japanese island / missed the bus / public transport / rented bikes / extremely hot / coast / taking photos / last-minute backup plan / tired / sweaty / sunburnt

Q03

拥挤地方

Describe a crowded place you have been to

- where the place was
- when you went there
- why it was crowded
- and explain how you felt there

中文记忆链

周末和朋友去 K11 > 电梯和餐饮区很挤 > 走路慢、找座位难 > 连锁店多、部分装修 > 逛近两小时几乎没买东西 > 以后改工作日去

完整答案

One crowded place I remember clearly is K11 in downtown Guangzhou.

I went to K11 with a friend on a weekend afternoon. It was very crowded near the escalators and the food area. We had to walk slowly, and it was hard to find a seat.

We moved from floor to floor, but many shops were chain stores we had already seen before. Some areas were also closed for renovation, so there was less to look at than we expected.

We stayed for nearly two hours, but we bought almost nothing. In the end, we just got coffee and left. I remember thinking that a short visit had taken much more time than I planned.

The crowd was the main problem for me. I still like the building itself, but now I prefer going on a weekday morning when I can walk around more easily.

推荐记忆锚点

K11 / weekend afternoon / very crowded / escalators / food area / hard to find a seat / chain stores / renovation / nearly two hours / coffee / weekday morning

Q04

学习并喜欢历史的人

Describe a person who likes to learn about history

- who the person is
- what kind of history he/she likes
- how he/she learns about it
- and explain why he/she is interested in history

中文记忆链

陶艺朋友 > 喜欢中国陶艺历史 > 看旧器型和图案 > 把传统元素做成彩色杯子和小雕塑 > 传统手法、现代结果 > 她把历史真正用进作品

完整答案

I'd like to talk about a friend who enjoys learning about history, especially the history of Chinese pottery.

My friend is a pottery craftsperson and she runs a small studio. She is interested in the history of Chinese pottery, so she often looks at old bowls, shapes and patterns in museums or online.

She does not just copy old designs. She takes ideas from them and makes colourful cups, small sculptures and character-shaped pieces. She still shapes the clay by hand and fires it in a kiln.

I have watched her work in the studio, and she can make small changes very quickly. I like the way she keeps the traditional technique but makes the final pieces look modern.

I think her way of learning history is interesting because she uses the old ideas in her own work. The history becomes something she can actually see and make.

推荐记忆锚点

pottery craftsperson / small studio / Chinese pottery / old bowls / shapes / patterns / museums / colourful cups / small sculptures / clay by hand / kiln / old ideas

Q05

小时候学到的新技能

Describe a skill you learned as a child

- what the skill was
- when and where you learned it
- who taught you
- and explain how you felt about learning it

中文记忆链

小时候中秋和家人一起 > 妈妈教我做冰皮月饼 > 包馅、压花纹 > 第一次压太用力 > 妈妈教我调整 > 最后一起吃 > 这个技能一直记得

完整答案

A skill I learned when I was young was making snow-skin mooncakes.

One Mid-Autumn Festival, my family got together at home. I was still quite young, and my mother taught me how to make snow-skin mooncakes.

We prepared the sweet filling, wrapped it in the soft mooncake skin and used a mould to press a pattern on top. My first one looked uneven because I pressed the mould too hard, so my mother showed me how to do it more gently.

Later, we compared the mooncakes, laughed at the strange-looking ones and ate them with tea after dinner. The homemade mooncakes were not perfect, but making them together was the part I remembered most.

I still remember the basic steps today. I think the skill stayed in my mind because I learned it with my family, not from a recipe or a class.

推荐记忆锚点

snow-skin mooncakes / Mid-Autumn Festival / family / mother / sweet filling / mooncake skin / mould / pressed the mould too hard / more gently / tea / basic steps

Q06

尊敬的比你年长的人

Describe an older person you respect

- who the person is
- how you know this person
- what he/she is like
- and explain why you respect him/her

中文记忆链

比我年长几岁的陶艺朋友 > 自己开工作室 > 教我做小动物 > 兔子做成熊 > 她不替我重做，只教我调整 > 最后自己完成 > 我尊敬她的耐心

完整答案

An older person I respect is my pottery friend.

She is a few years older than me and has her own small pottery studio. One day, she invited me there and taught me how to make a small animal from clay.

She showed me how to keep my hands steady and how much pressure to use. I wanted to make a rabbit, but the shape slowly turned into something closer to a bear.

She did not take the clay away and fix it for me. She explained what I could change and let me try again. The final piece was not perfect, but I was proud that I finished it myself.

I respect her because she is skilled and patient. When I make mistakes, she does not make me feel stupid; she helps me understand the problem and try again.

推荐记忆锚点

older person / pottery friend / small pottery studio / small animal / hands steady / pressure / rabbit / bear / try again / finished it myself / skilled / patient

Q07

嘈杂地

Describe a noisy place you have been to

- where the place was
- when you went there
- why it was noisy
- and explain how you felt about the noise

中文记忆链

香港 K-pop 演唱会 > 和两个朋友去 > 开场前吃饭聊天 > 灯一暗全场尖叫合唱 > 几乎听不到朋友说话 > 最后唱 fan song > 虽然很吵但现场感很强

完整答案

The noisiest place I can remember is a K-pop concert in Hong Kong.

I went to a K-pop concert in Hong Kong with two close friends. We had been fans of the same group for years, so we were excited long before the show started.

Before the concert, we had dinner near the venue and talked about the songs we hoped to hear. Once the lights went down, the crowd started cheering and singing along, and I could hardly hear my friends beside me.

At the end, the group performed a fan song. They also said, 'See you next year.' We were tired after the show, but we still bought drinks and kept talking on the way back to the hotel.

Normally that amount of noise would bother me, but at the concert it felt exciting because everyone was reacting to the same performance. My ears were tired afterwards, but I still enjoyed it.

推荐记忆锚点

K-pop concert / Hong Kong / two close friends / dinner / songs / lights went down / cheering / singing along / hardly hear my friends / fan song / tired / exciting

Q08

想颁布的环保法律

Describe an environmental law you would like to introduce

- what the law would be
- why you would introduce it
- how it would work
- and explain how it could help the environment

中文记忆链

环保法 > 市中心高峰期收拥堵费 > 真正需要开车的人仍可开 > 收入改善公交 > 公交好用就少开车 > 减少堵车和排放 > 从城市日常行为开始

完整答案

An environmental law I would like to introduce is a city-centre congestion fee.

The law would make private cars pay a small fee when they enter the busiest parts of a city during peak hours. People who really need to drive could still use a car, but unnecessary trips would cost more.

The money would be used to make buses and other public transport cheaper and better. If buses were easy to use, more people might leave the car at home.

I like this idea because it does not completely ban cars. It simply gives people a reason to drive less, so traffic and emissions could both go down.

I started thinking about this after reading about climate change and animals such as penguins losing their habitat. I know one city law cannot solve that problem, but reducing traffic is still a practical start.

推荐记忆锚点

environmental law / congestion fee / private cars / busiest parts / peak hours / unnecessary trips / buses / public transport / leave the car at home / drive less / traffic / emissions / penguins

Q09

遇到的科技问题

Describe a technological problem you faced

- what the problem was
- when it happened
- how you dealt with it
- and explain how you felt about it

中文记忆链

开始认真用智能手表记录运动和睡眠 > 下班看步数和活动圆环 > 晚上看睡眠 > 用了一段时间后手表突然关机 > 充电、重启都没用 > 网上搜到同样问题 > 更新系统后恢复

完整答案

A technological problem I faced happened with my smartwatch.

I started using my smartwatch more seriously because I wanted to improve my exercise and sleep. I check my steps and activity rings after work, and if I have barely moved, I usually go out for a short walk.

I also use a sleep app at night, so I notice when I have been going to bed too late. The watch does not force me to exercise, but the numbers make my habits easier to see.

After I had used it for a while, the watch suddenly shut down even though it was only about a year old. I tried charging and restarting it, but both attempts failed.

I searched online and found someone with the same problem. A comment suggested updating the system, and after I tried that, the watch started working normally again.

I felt relieved because I fixed it without going to a store. It also taught me that checking other users' experiences online can sometimes save a lot of time.

推荐记忆锚点

smartwatch / exercise / sleep / steps / activity rings / short walk / sleep app / shut down / charging / restarting / searched online / same problem / updating the system / working normally

当地新闻

Describe a piece of local news you heard or saw

- what the news was about
- where and when you saw/heard it
- why it caught your attention
- and explain how you felt about it

中文记忆链

本地新闻短视频 > 陶艺市集 > 原本觉得陶艺老派 > 看到手工塑形和彩色现代作品 > 年轻陶艺师想让传统手艺更年轻 > 我后来去工作室体验

完整答案

A piece of local news I remember was a short video about a pottery market in my city.

I found it on social media and almost skipped it because I used to think pottery was old-fashioned. The clip was only about two or three minutes long, so it was easy to finish.

The video showed hands shaping clay and then showed the finished pieces. There were colourful cups, small sculptures and cute character-shaped objects, not just plain bowls.

A few young makers said they wanted younger people to notice traditional crafts. I liked that idea because the old technique could still produce something modern and fun.

After watching the video, I wanted to see the work in person and later visited a pottery studio. It completely changed the picture of pottery I had in my head.

推荐记忆锚点

local news / short video / pottery market / social media / shaping clay / finished pieces / colourful cups / small sculptures / young makers / traditional crafts / modern and fun / pottery studio

Q11

长期追求/目标

Describe a long-term goal you would like to achieve

- what the goal is
- when you first had this goal
- what you need to do to achieve it
- and explain why it is important to you

中文记忆链

长期目标 > 想做类似 Claire 的线上艺术平台 > 艺术家入驻、AR 预览画挂在家里的效果 > 社媒慢慢积累用户 > 我需要学管理、品牌和艺术家合作 > 先小规模测试

完整答案

A long-term goal I would like to achieve is to build a small online art platform similar to my friend Claire's.

Claire turned her interest in drawing into a small online art business. The platform works with artists and lets customers preview how a painting may look in their room before they buy it.

She started with only a few artists and posted regularly on social media. Over time, more people followed the platform, and it later joined some exhibitions overseas.

I like the AR preview because it solves a simple problem. People can see the artwork in a room before spending money, so choosing a painting feels easier.

To do that, I would need to learn more about management, branding and working with artists. I would start small and test the idea before trying to grow it.

推荐记忆锚点

long-term goal / online art platform / Claire / artists / preview / painting / room / social media / exhibitions overseas / AR preview / management / branding / start small

想从事医疗行业的人

Describe a person who would like to work in the medical field

- who the person is
- why he/she wants to work in the medical field
- what kind of job he/she wants
- and explain why you think it suits him/her

中文记忆链

Claire > 看韩国医疗剧 > 很尊重医生在压力下帮助病人的职业 >
去社区做健康志愿活动 > 学会照顾人、安排实际事项 >
她觉得这些经验能帮助她以后成为更专业的医生 > 开始查课程和资格

完整答案

The person I know who would like to work in the medical field is my friend Claire.

She became interested in being a doctor after watching a Korean medical drama. The doctors had to stay calm, make quick decisions and help people in difficult situations. That made her respect the job a lot.

Later, she did some volunteer work in her community. She helped with simple health activities, looked after people who needed help and organised small tasks with the other volunteers.

She thinks that experience taught her how to care for people and how to handle practical work. She believes those skills will help her become a more professional doctor in the future.

She has started checking courses and qualifications, so it is not just a casual idea. I think the job suits her because she is patient, organised and willing to keep learning.

- and explain why you found it boring

中文记忆链

和朋友周末去 K11 > 人多 > 连锁店很多、部分装修 > 一层层逛但没什么新东西 > 近两小时几乎没买东西 > 喝咖啡就走 > 觉得无聊

完整答案

One place I found boring was K11 in Guangzhou.

I went to K11 with a friend on a weekend afternoon. It was very crowded near the escalators and the food area. We had to walk slowly, and it was hard to find a seat.

We moved from floor to floor, but many shops were chain stores we had already seen before. Some areas were also closed for renovation, so there was less to look at than we expected.

We stayed for nearly two hours, but we bought almost nothing. In the end, we just got coffee and left. I remember thinking that a short visit had taken much more time than I planned.

For me, the visit became boring because the shops felt similar and there was not much new to see. I would rather spend that time in smaller local shops.

中文记忆链

近期开始更认真用智能手表 > 看步数和活动圆环 > 没完成就出去走一走 > 晚上看睡眠 > 手表坏过一次、网上更新解决 > 现在更早发现自己久坐或晚睡 > 生活更规律

完整答案

A recent change in my life is that I have become more regular with exercise and sleep.

I started using my smartwatch more seriously because I wanted to improve my exercise and sleep. I check my steps and activity rings after work, and if I have barely moved, I usually go out for a short walk.

I also use a sleep app at night, so I notice when I have been going to bed too late. The watch does not force me to exercise, but the numbers make my habits easier to see.

I searched online and found someone with the same problem. A comment suggested updating the system, and after I tried that, the watch started working normally again.

The biggest change is that I now notice my habits earlier. If I have been sitting all day or sleeping too late, the watch gives me a simple reminder to adjust.

奈良的一座山 > 购物一天后已经很累、还拿着东西 > taxi 先上到较高位置 > 为看日落继续往上走 > 草坡、安静、小鹿 > 到高处喂鹿、拍照、看日落 > 虽然累但很喜欢

完整答案

A natural place I really like is a mountain in Nara, Japan.

I went to a mountain in Nara, Japan, after shopping for most of the day. I was already tired and still carrying a few bags when we started going up.

We took a taxi most of the way, but the best place to watch the sunset was higher, so we still had to walk uphill for a while.

The wide green grass slopes were beautiful and the area was very quiet. We saw a few deer along the way, and there were even more near the higher viewing area.

We fed a few of the deer, took photos together and watched the sunset. I was exhausted, but the view made the climb feel worth it.

I like this place because it feels peaceful and very different from the busy city. The grass, the deer and the sunset made the whole trip feel special.

We followed a quiet road beside the coast and could stop whenever we wanted. My friend loves taking photos, so we stopped several times for the sea, the small roads and other details. She likes natural light and usually takes several versions before choosing one. She also photographs small things such as signs, bicycles and food.

At the time, I sometimes got impatient because we stopped so often. Later, she sent me a small album from the trip, and I realised that her photos had saved many details I had already forgotten.

攒钱买特别物品

Describe something special you saved money to buy

- what the item was
- why you wanted it
- how you saved money for it
- and explain how you felt when you finally bought it

中文记忆链

想买智能手表 > 为运动和睡眠记录 > 每月从工资存一点、减少网购 > 去 Apple Store 试几个型号 > 店员解释功能 > 最后买下 > 因为提前存钱所以没有压力

完整答案

Something special I saved money to buy was my smartwatch.

I wanted a smartwatch because I wanted to track my exercise and sleep. I did not need to buy it immediately. So I saved a fixed amount from my salary for a few months and cut down on unnecessary online shopping.

When I had enough money, I went to an Apple Store and tried a few models. A staff member asked what I needed the watch for and showed me the exercise, heart-rate and sleep functions.

She also showed me cheaper options and did not push the most expensive model. After I chose one, she helped me set up the basic functions.

I felt good about the purchase because I had planned it for a few months and could pay for it without affecting my normal expenses. I still use the watch every day.

保护环境的法律

Describe a law that protects the environment

- what the law is
- how you learned about it
- what it asks people to do
- and explain how it protects the environment

中文记忆链

环保交通法 > 市中心高峰期收拥堵费 > 不完全禁车 > 收入改善公交 > 更多人改坐公交 > 少开车 > 少用油、少污染

完整答案

A law that I think can protect the environment is a city-centre congestion fee.

The law would make private cars pay a small fee when they enter the busiest parts of a city during peak hours. People who really need to drive could still use a car, but unnecessary trips would cost more.

The money would be used to make buses and other public transport cheaper and better. If buses were easy to use, more people might leave the car at home.

I like this idea because it does not completely ban cars. It simply gives people a reason to drive less, so traffic and emissions could both go down.

The main environmental benefit is simple: fewer unnecessary car trips mean less fuel is used and less pollution is produced in busy areas. The rule is also easy to understand. I think that matters for a city law.

包含动物的故事或书

Describe a story or book with animals in it

- what the story/book is
- what happens in it
- what animals appear in it
- and explain why you like or remember it

中文记忆链

Zootopia 动物城市很新奇 > 兔子和狐狸都被传统刻板印象定义 > 两人合作查案 > 他们实际都和别人想的不一样 > 不要太快先入为主

完整答案

An animal story I really like is Zootopia. It takes place in a city where many kinds of animals live together. The main character is a small rabbit who dreams of becoming a police officer.

Other animals do not take her seriously because of her size. At work, she meets a fox who is also judged by a stereotype, because many animals assume foxes are dishonest.

The two characters end up working together on a difficult case. At first they do not fully trust each other, but they slowly learn to cooperate. One character cannot solve everything alone. They need each other's different strengths.

What I like most is the animal world because it feels fresh and imaginative. The film also plays with common stereotypes, because the rabbit and the fox are both different from what others expect. So it reminds me not to judge someone too quickly.

A time I did not receive a reply for a long time happened while I was organising a concert trip with friends.

For one concert trip, two friends and I made a group chat and divided the work. I looked for tickets, while one friend handled the hotel and transport.

We kept the booking details and meeting times in the same chat, so everyone knew what had already been arranged.

While I was buying the tickets on a second-hand platform, one seller replied quickly at first and then suddenly stopped answering when we started talking about how to send the ticket.

Later, our hotel booking was cancelled as well. Luckily, the friend responsible for the hotel already had a backup option, so we changed places without too much trouble.

I waited for more than an hour and kept checking my phone because tickets were selling quickly. In the end, I contacted another seller and got the ticket from that person instead.

名人广告

Describe an advertisement with a famous person in it

- who the famous person is
- where you saw the advertisement
- what the advertisement was about
- and explain how you felt about it

中文记忆链

喜欢的 K-pop 中国成员 > 中秋限定联名咖啡品牌 > 她参与冰皮月饼 idea > 包装有她的名字和小 logo > 广告里亲自示范怎么做 > 我跟着做 > 最后买了联名咖啡

完整答案

I'd like to talk about a Mid-Autumn advertisement featuring a Chinese member of my favourite K-pop group. I saw it online, and it was for a limited-edition collaboration with a local coffee brand.

The product was a special mooncake set. She helped come up with the idea, and the box had her name and a small personal logo on it. That made the campaign feel more connected to her, instead of being a normal celebrity endorsement.

In the video, she also showed viewers how to make a simple snow-skin mooncake. I followed the steps at home, mixed the filling, wrapped it in the skin and pressed a pattern on top with a mould.

I normally skip celebrity ads, but I watched this one to the end because it felt personal and practical. I even bought the collaboration coffee afterwards, so the advertisement clearly worked on me.

完整答案

I'd like to talk about a concert trip that I organised with two friends as a small team.

For one concert trip, two friends and I made a group chat and divided the work. I looked for tickets, while one friend handled the hotel and transport.

We kept the booking details and meeting times in the same chat, so everyone knew what had already been arranged.

While I was buying the tickets on a second-hand platform, one seller replied quickly at first and then suddenly stopped answering when we started talking about how to send the ticket.

Later, our hotel booking was cancelled as well. Luckily, the friend responsible for the hotel already had a backup option, so we changed places without too much trouble.

The trip showed me why teamwork is useful. Each person was responsible for one part, so when the ticket seller or the hotel caused a problem, we did not all have to solve everything at the same time.

想颁布的新法律

Describe a new law you would like to introduce

- what the law would be
- why you would introduce it
- who it would affect
- and explain what difference it could make

中文记忆链

新法律 > 市中心高峰期拥堵费 > 需要开车的人仍可开 > 钱用于改善公交 > 给大家一个少开车的理由 > 规则简单清楚

完整答案

A new law I would like to introduce is a city-centre congestion fee.

The law would make private cars pay a small fee when they enter the busiest parts of a city during peak hours. People who really need to drive could still use a car, but unnecessary trips would cost more.

The money would be used to make buses and other public transport cheaper and better. If buses were easy to use, more people might leave the car at home.

I like this idea because it does not completely ban cars. It simply gives people a reason to drive less, so traffic and emissions could both go down.

I think the rule would be easy to understand. If you choose to drive into the busiest area at the busiest time, you pay a small extra fee.

原计划周末加班 > 决定改去香港演唱会 > 先处理急事并请假 > 高铁没票、改早班机 > 凌晨三点起床 > 到机场很困 > 顺利看到演唱会 > 觉得值得

完整答案

The clearest time I remember getting up early was for a concert trip to Hong Kong.

I had originally planned to spend the weekend working overtime. Then my best friend and I heard that our favourite K-pop group might not stay together much longer, so we started thinking about going to their concert.

I finished the most urgent work first, told my team in advance and asked for a day off. We made the decision quite late, so the train was already sold out and we had to book an early flight.

The flight meant getting up at about three in the morning. I had packed the night before, but I was still very sleepy when I left home and went to the airport.

The trip was more tiring and a little more expensive than our original plan, but we reached the concert on time. I was glad we went because the work could still be finished later, but that concert could not be repeated.

Getting up at three was painful, but once the concert started I stopped thinking about how tired I was. In the end, the early start felt worth it.

完整答案

A popular person I know is my friend Claire.

Claire and I first met at school more than ten years ago. When we were younger, we often talked after class about music and drawing, and she used to draw in the margins of her notebooks.

Now we are both busy, but she is still easy to talk to. She remembers small things about people and often helps friends when they need advice. Even when we are busy, she sends short messages and remembers small plans we made.

Outside work, she still draws, grows tomatoes on her balcony and sometimes meets friends for coffee. She has her own interests, but she also makes time for other people.

I think people like her because she is reliable and easy to be around. She is not loud or attention-seeking, but people trust her and enjoy talking to her.

中文记忆链

完整答案

A time I received very good service was when I bought my smartwatch at an Apple Store.

I wanted a smartwatch because I wanted to track my exercise and sleep. I did not need to buy it immediately. So I saved a fixed amount from my salary for a few months and cut down on unnecessary online shopping.

When I had enough money, I went to an Apple Store and tried a few models. A staff member asked what I needed the watch for and showed me the exercise, heart-rate and sleep functions.

She also showed me cheaper options and did not push the most expensive model. After I chose one, she helped me set up the basic functions.

I thought the service was good because the staff member listened to what I needed and did not try to make me spend more. The advice felt useful, not like a sales pitch.

中文记忆链

完整答案

An enjoyable evening I spent with friends was the night of a K-pop concert in Hong Kong.

I went to a K-pop concert in Hong Kong with two close friends. We had been fans of the same group for years, so we were excited long before the show started.

Before the concert, we had dinner near the venue and talked about the songs we hoped to hear. Once the lights went down, the crowd started cheering and singing along, and I could hardly hear my friends beside me.

At the end, the group performed a fan song. They also said, 'See you next year.' We were tired after the show, but we still bought drinks and kept talking on the way back to the hotel.

I enjoyed the evening because it felt like a small celebration with friends who understood why the group mattered to me. Even after the concert ended, none of us wanted the night to finish quickly.

- when/where you watched it
- what it is about
- and explain why you did not like it

中文记忆链

很喜欢 Zootopia 1 > 因此对第二部期待很高 > 第二部人物和城市历史更多 > 我觉得信息太杂、惊喜感变少 > 有点失望

完整答案

A movie I did not enjoy very much was Zootopia 2. I had liked the first film a lot, so I went into the second one with quite high expectations.

The story still follows Judy and Nick on a new case, and there are several new characters. I liked seeing them work together again, but some parts spent a long time explaining the city's history.

The first movie felt fresh because I was discovering the animal city for the first time. In the second one, I had to remember more names and background details. Sometimes I lost track of what Judy and Nick were actually trying to solve.

I would not call it a terrible movie, but I came out a little disappointed. The first film was easier to follow and gave me more surprises, while the second one felt more complicated without being more fun.

- and explain how you felt while listening

中文记忆链

完整答案

I'd like to talk about a time when I listened to my pottery friend talking about a topic I was not interested in. She was explaining different kinds of clay, firing temperatures and traditional patterns.

At that time, I still thought pottery was rather old-fashioned, and many of the technical words meant very little to me. I found it difficult to follow the details, but she was clearly excited, so I did not want to interrupt or look rude.

Near the end, she showed me a few colourful modern pieces on her phone. That helped me understand the topic a little better, but pottery still was not something I would normally choose to talk about.

I remember the conversation mainly because it was a good test of patience. I tried to stay polite and listen properly even when the topic itself was not something I would normally choose.

完整答案

The most organised person I know is my friend Claire.

Claire is one of my closest friends, and we have known each other for more than ten years. She usually starts things with a clear goal.

She makes a short to-do list on her laptop and decides what she needs to do each day. She uses the same method for languages. For English, she watched Friends and talked with people online. For Japanese, she uses an app regularly.

She is also not afraid of making mistakes. If she learns a useful phrase, she tries to use it in a real conversation. She does not just write it down.

I think her system works because it is simple. She does not make a very strict timetable; she just knows the next few things she needs to finish.

中文记忆链

Claire 小公寓 > 阳台种番茄 > 自己买土和种子、每天照顾 > 我去时坐阳台附近聊天 > 家里很有个人感 > 但空间小、收纳少 > 喜欢去但不想住

完整答案

A home I like visiting but would not want to live in is Claire's apartment.

Claire lives in a small apartment, and my favourite part is her balcony. She grows tomatoes there in a few pots because she wanted something simple to care for at home.

She bought the soil and seeds herself. She waters the plants, checks the leaves and moves the pots when they need more sunlight. When the first tomatoes appeared, she sent me photos because she was really excited.

When I visit, we often sit near the balcony, have a drink and talk. The apartment feels personal because there are plants, drawings and art supplies around the room.

A live sports event I remember well is an ice hockey match I watched in Vancouver with my best friend. We were travelling there when we saw a poster for the game and decided to buy tickets.

It was my first time watching ice hockey in person. Many people wore team jerseys, and the crowd was already excited before the match started. The arena felt very different from watching sport on TV.

At first, I found the puck difficult to follow because it moved so quickly and looked tiny from our seats. After a while, I got used to the speed and started understanding when something important was happening.

The team I supported lost near the end, so the trip back was quieter. Even so, I enjoyed the match because the live atmosphere made a sport I barely knew feel exciting.

An interesting video I watched was a short local-news clip about a pottery market.

I found it on social media and almost skipped it because I used to think pottery was old-fashioned. The clip was only about two or three minutes long, so it was easy to finish.

The video showed hands shaping clay and then showed the finished pieces. There were colourful cups, small sculptures and cute character-shaped objects, not just plain bowls.

A few young makers said they wanted younger people to notice traditional crafts. I liked that idea because the old technique could still produce something modern and fun.

After watching the video, I wanted to see the work in person and later visited a pottery studio. It completely changed the picture of pottery I had in my head.

完整答案

I'd like to talk about an interview with my favourite K-pop group, (G)I-DLE. I watched it on YouTube around their 2022 comeback, after they had been away for quite a long time.

They talked about returning as five members after one member had left the group. Because of that change, they had to adjust how they worked together and prepare the new album in a different way.

One thing I remember is that Soyeon said they prepared the album as if they were debuting again. Yuqi also said being together as a team was very important. I found those comments easy to understand because the group had gone through a difficult period.

The interview was memorable to me because I already liked the group, but it showed me what happened behind the comeback. They did not pretend everything had been easy. They talked about the change directly and focused on moving forward.

A person I know who is very good at making things by hand is my pottery friend.

My friend is a pottery craftsperson and she runs a small studio. She is interested in the history of Chinese pottery, so she often looks at old bowls, shapes and patterns in museums or online.

She does not just copy old designs. She takes ideas from them and makes colourful cups, small sculptures and character-shaped pieces. She still shapes the clay by hand and fires it in a kiln.

I have watched her work in the studio, and she can make small changes very quickly. I like the way she keeps the traditional technique but makes the final pieces look modern.

I admire her skill because the process is difficult when I try it. She can turn a soft piece of clay into something neat and detailed very quickly.

I'd like to talk about a trip that changed my opinion about cycling. Before that day, I thought cycling on a trip would only make me tired and slow me down.

My friend and I went to a quiet Japanese island. We missed the bus, and public transport was very limited, so we rented bikes. The weather was extremely hot, and I was not happy about cycling at first.

We followed a quiet road beside the coast and could stop whenever we wanted. My friend loves taking photos, so we stopped several times for the sea, the small roads and other details.

I was still tired at the end, but I understood why people enjoy cycling on trips. We could choose our own pace and stop for photos, so the journey felt more flexible than waiting for a bus.

推荐奈良的一座山 > 下午去比较合适 > taxi 先上到较高位置 > 再往上走看日落 > 一路草坡和小鹿 > 高处喂鹿、拍照 > 日落很漂亮 > 虽然要走一段但很值得推荐

完整答案

A place I have visited and would recommend is a mountain in Nara, Japan.

I went to a mountain in Nara, Japan, after shopping for most of the day. I was already tired and still carrying a few bags when we started going up.

We took a taxi most of the way, but the best place to watch the sunset was higher, so we still had to walk uphill for a while.

The wide green grass slopes were beautiful and the area was very quiet. We saw a few deer along the way, and there were even more near the higher viewing area.

We fed a few of the deer, took photos together and watched the sunset. I was exhausted, but the view made the climb feel worth it.

I would recommend going in the late afternoon, so you can reach the higher area before sunset. The walk is a little tiring, but you can see grass slopes, deer and a beautiful view in one trip.

重要决定

Describe an important decision you made

- what the decision was
- when you made it
- what influenced your decision
- and explain why it was important

中文记忆链

重要决定 > 请假去可能很难再有的演唱会 > 先安排好工作 > 高铁没票改早班机 > 凌晨三点起床 > 顺利去成 > 以后遇到一次性机会不会默认因为工作放弃

完整答案

An important decision I made was to take a day off and go to a concert.

I had originally planned to spend the weekend working overtime. Then my best friend and I heard that our favourite K-pop group might not stay together much longer, so we started thinking about going to their concert.

I finished the most urgent work first, told my team in advance and asked for a day off. We made the decision quite late, so the train was already sold out and we had to book an early flight.

The flight meant getting up at about three in the morning. I had packed the night before, but I was still very sleepy when I left home and went to the airport.

The trip was more tiring and a little more expensive than our original plan, but we reached the concert on time. I was glad we went because the work could still be finished later, but that concert could not be repeated.

The decision changed the way I look at similar situations. I still take work seriously, but I no longer say no automatically when an experience may only happen once.

特殊场合下吃的食物

Describe food you ate on a special occasion

- what the food was
- what the special occasion was
- who you ate it with
- and explain why the food was special

中文记忆链

中秋和家人一起 > 妈妈教做冰皮月饼 > 包馅、压花纹 > 成品有好有坏 > 饭后配茶一起吃 > 特别的不只是味道，而是一起做

完整答案

A special food I remember eating was a snow-skin mooncake during the Mid-Autumn Festival.

One Mid-Autumn Festival, my family got together at home. I was still quite young, and my mother taught me how to make snow-skin mooncakes.

We prepared the sweet filling, wrapped it in the soft mooncake skin and used a mould to press a pattern on top. My first one looked uneven because I pressed the mould too hard, so my mother showed me how to do it more gently.

Later, we compared the mooncakes, laughed at the strange-looking ones and ate them with tea after dinner. The homemade mooncakes were not perfect, but making them together was the part I remembered most.

The mooncake tasted soft and slightly sweet, but what made it special was the family activity around it. We made the food ourselves and then ate it together.

商业上很成功的人

Describe a person who is successful in business

- who the person is
- what business he/she runs
- why the business is successful
- and explain what you think of this person

中文记忆链

Claire > 把画画兴趣做成线上艺术生意 > 艺术家入驻 > AR 预览挂画效果 > 社媒慢慢积累用户、参加海外展览 > 用户真的通过平台买画 > 生意有清楚价值

完整答案

A person I know who is successful in business is my friend Claire.

Claire turned her interest in drawing into a small online art business. The platform works with artists and lets customers preview how a painting may look in their room before they buy it.

She started with only a few artists and posted regularly on social media. Over time, more people followed the platform, and it later joined some exhibitions overseas.

I like the AR preview because it solves a simple problem. People can see the artwork in a room before spending money, so choosing a painting feels easier.

I think she is successful because people do not just follow the account; they actually use the service and buy art through it. The business has a clear idea and a real use for customers.

中文记忆链

Claire > 学生时代认识 > 十多年朋友 > 以前下课聊音乐和画画 > 现在都忙但仍联系 > 见面不用重新熟悉 > 因为认识彼此太久

完整答案

A childhood friend I would like to talk about is Claire.

Claire and I first met at school more than ten years ago. When we were younger, we often talked after class about music and drawing, and she used to draw in the margins of her notebooks.

Now we are both busy, but she is still easy to talk to. She remembers small things about people and often helps friends when they need advice. Even when we are busy, she sends short messages and remembers small plans we made.

Outside work, she still draws, grows tomatoes on her balcony and sometimes meets friends for coffee. She has her own interests, but she also makes time for other people.

We do not meet as often as before, but the friendship still feels easy. When we meet, we can start talking naturally because we already know each other so well.

中文记忆链

广州 K11 > 高层公共建筑 > 商店、办公室、艺术展 > 和朋友看展喝咖啡 > 交通方便 > 像商场和画廊的结合 > 我喜欢

完整答案

I'd like to talk about K11 in downtown Guangzhou. It is a tall public building with several floors of shops, offices above them and art exhibitions from time to time.

I like the inside most. There are artworks, colourful lights and small design displays, so it feels more creative than a normal shopping centre. I often go there with a friend to see a new exhibition or have coffee.

The displays change quite often, so there is usually something new to look at. It is also easy to reach by public transport. I also like that I can stay indoors when Guangzhou is very hot. When I have more time, I sometimes walk through the exhibition areas before getting coffee.

For me, K11 is interesting because it mixes art with everyday activities. I can walk around, eat something and still get new design ideas, so I enjoy visiting it.

读起来开心的书

中文记忆链

Zootopia 这本书 > 动物城市很新奇 > 兔子想当警察却被看不起 > 狐狸也受到刻板印象影响 > 两人一起查案 > 从互不信任到合作 > 友谊有趣又温暖 > 读完很开心

完整答案

One book that made me happy is Zootopia. It takes place in a city where many kinds of animals live together. The main character is a small rabbit who dreams of becoming a police officer.

Other animals do not take her seriously because of her size. At work, she meets a fox who is also judged by a stereotype, because many animals assume foxes are dishonest.

The two characters end up working together on a difficult case. At first they do not fully trust each other, but they slowly learn to cooperate. One character cannot solve everything alone. They need each other's different strengths.

What I like most is the animal world because it feels fresh and imaginative. The book also plays with common stereotypes, because the rabbit and the fox are both different from what others expect. I find their friendship funny and heartwarming, and I felt really happy when I finished the book.

完整答案

The person I'd like to talk about is my friend Claire. Claire is one of my closest friends, and we have known each other for more than ten years. She usually starts things with a clear goal.

She usually exercises in the morning after getting up. But if she has classes or a part-time job, she moves her workout to the afternoon. She doesn't give up just because she's busy.

Before going to bed, she likes reading a book and making a short to-do list for the next day. She decides what she needs to do each day, so she doesn't feel stressed in the morning.

I think her system works because it is simple. She does not make a very strict timetable; she just knows the next few things she needs to finish. I think these small habits help her stay healthy and organised.

妹妹高中毕业 > 害羞、从未独自旅行 > 想去韩国参加 K-pop Fan Meeting > 担心机场、酒店和场馆 > 我鼓励她 > 帮选酒店、查签证、规划路线 > 她按计划独自完成旅行 > 更有自信 > 我很开心

完整答案

I'd like to talk about a time when I helped my younger sister. She had just finished high school, was quite shy and had never travelled by herself before.

She really wanted to attend a K-pop fan meeting in South Korea, but the airport, hotel and venue all made her nervous. Since nobody in our family could go with her, she wasn't sure if she should go.

I encouraged her and helped her make a travel plan. I helped her choose a safe hotel, check the visa process and go through the route before she left. I also reminded her to arrive early, so she wouldn't feel rushed.

She still wanted to give up at one point, but having a clear plan made the trip feel possible. During the trip, she used maps on her phone and sent us a message after she reached the hotel.

In the end, she completed the whole trip alone and came back much more confident. I felt really happy because I had helped her do something she was afraid of.
